

Business & Corporate Finance

Baker & Daniels' business lawyers have been helping companies grow for nearly 150 years by providing strategic legal counsel to businesses that are building Indiana and beyond. Our lawyers understand that, in today's world, clients face a variety of complicated legal issues in an environment that never stops moving—that's why we place a priority on being available when a client contacts us and responding within the time frame his or her business requires.

Lawyers from our business and corporate finance team represent a wide variety of clients, including publicly and privately held companies, S&P 500 and small cap companies, underwriters, other market participants and investors on an ongoing and transactional basis. We are a full-service law firm and can help with almost any issue facing your business.

Our team's work often involves collaborating with Baker & Daniels professionals from other practice areas, including insurance, labor, antitrust, employee benefits, environmental, real estate, government incentives, and intellectual property.
