

Litigation

Professionals in Baker & Daniels' health care practice counsel clients in all types of administrative and judicial litigation. On the administrative side, we are experienced in litigation matters such as licensure and certification, Medicare and Medicaid certification, and reimbursement matters. On the litigation side, we are experienced in all types of judicial litigation, including medical staff disputes, antitrust claims, contractual disputes, employment claims, physician non-compete litigation, False Claims Act claims, Anti-Kickback and Stark claims, declaratory judgment matters, shareholder disputes and emergency judicial relief, such as emergency guardianships and preliminary injunctions.